2010 Alumni Reunion Conditions of Participation

1. The Directors reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to dismiss a participant whose influence or actions are deemed to be unsatisfactory or detrimental to the Camp or who will not live within the rules and policies of the Camp.
2. Camp is not responsible for participant's articles of clothing or personal belongings lost or damaged by fire, theft, laundry etc. It is highly recommended that participants do not bring valuable items such as expensive clothing, jewelry, cameras, electronic or musical instruments to Camp.
3. Rooms are subject to the availability of space and may be reserved for parties of 5 or more. Reservations may be completed only when all interested parties are signed up for the Alumni event.
4. Participant understands that part of the camping experience involves activities and group living arrangements. Participant is aware of these risks, and assumes responsibility for them. Participant realizes that no environment is risk-free and agrees to follow the stated camp rules and direction of the directors.
5. Participant gives Camp Weequahic permission to reproduce and publish any photographs, videotapes, interviews or likeness of me and/or my family for advertising, commercials and any other purpose in any medium.
6. At no time are tobacco or illegal substances allowed on the Camp Weequahic property.
7. In the event of any dispute or cause of action arising out of this agreement or any other dispute or cause of action between a participant and Camp, the sole jurisdiction shall lie in the Wayne County Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas and the laws shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I hereby agree to be bound by the foregoing Conditions of Participation, as witnessed by my signature below.
